CCMU Graduates Achieve Credential Recognition, Unlocking Professional Opportunities in China

We are proud to announce that our Master's and Doctoral graduates have recently received academic credential recognition from the Chinese Service Center for Scholarly Exchange (CSCSE) under the Ministry of Education of China. This recognition enables our graduates to apply for licensure, teaching positions, and employment opportunities in China, showcasing the global value and professional credibility of their education in Chinese medicine.

CCMU Launches Call for Proposals: Join Us in Advancing Chinese Medicine Research

We are thrilled to announce a Call for Proposals for innovative research projects that align with CCMU's mission and our collaboration with RAND REACH. This is a unique chance to contribute to the advancement of Chinese Medicine by leveraging mentorship, cutting-edge resources, and multidisciplinary collaboration.

Proposal Opportunities
1. Individual Projects: Faculty, staff, alumni, and collaborators are invited to propose independent research projects. These initiatives will be supported by RAND REACH resources, including mentorship and tools for success.
2. Team-Based Collaborative Projects: Collaborative research amplifies impact through multidisciplinary approaches and increases opportunities for broader funding. Teams will address critical areas, including:

- Knowledge Map Team: Developing an interoperable knowledge map of Chinese Medicine, integrating patient-reported outcomes with holistic health concepts.
- Ethics and Policy Team: Investigating ethical frameworks and policy in Complementary and Integrative Health.
- Standards and Outcome Measures Team: Creating validated tools for measuring and reporting research outcomes.
- Pragmatic Clinical Trials Team: Designing impactful trials to support real-world applications of Chinese Medicine.
- Integrative Oncology Team: Exploring Chinese Medicine's role in cancer care and improving patient outcomes.
- Pain Team: Developing non-pharmacological interventions for pain management and addressing the opioid crisis.
- Writing Team: Supporting grant writing, academic publishing, and advancing TCM evidence through high-quality case studies and research articles.

How to Get Involved
- Submission Deadline: December 24, 2024
- Format: Provide a description of your proposed project or indicate interest in joining or leading a team.
- Submit To: joe.brady@faculty.ccmu.edu

This is your opportunity to make a meaningful contribution to the future of Chinese Medicine. Whether pursuing an individual project or joining a collaborative team, your efforts will help position CCMU as a leader in integrative health research.

Let's build a thriving research ecosystem together!
